

PRAESIDIUM CHECKLIST

"Put thy house into order." (Is. 38)

Please spend three weeks reading the pages indicated and discussing the points in this checklist.

Our strength lies in our uniformity in the Legion. The beauty lies in the variety of works and personalities within that uniformity.

WEEK I Order of the Praesidium Meeting

Read: page 32, #5
(Refer to pages 189, 180, 185, 190) Comments

Discuss:

Time: Does the meeting begin promptly?
Does it last between 1 hour and 1 1/2 hours?

Prayers: Do late-comers and early-departers silently recite the appropriate prayers?
Are the opening and concluding prayers said kneeling and the Catena standing?
Does the Spiritual Director recite alone the "Let us Pray" parts?
Are no additional prayers added to the meeting itself?

Other: Is the Spiritual Reading taken from the Handbook or some other Legion-related book?
Is the Allocutio a commentary on some aspect of the Legion?
Is it spoken and not read?
Does the President or some appointed member give the Allocutio in the absence of the Spiritual Director?

WEEK II A Good Member

Read: page 30, #2 and #3 (the small print of #2 may be omitted in this case) (Refer to pages 192, 84-87, 122, 32)

Discuss: Do members recite the Catena daily?
Do members realize their primary duty is attendance at the meeting and therefore miss only when necessary?
Do members help the spirit of the meeting by listening with interest to the minutes and reports?
Do members make efforts to invite others to the meeting?

Are comments made without interrupting reports or the Allocutio?
Are questions and problems discussed in a spirit of humility?
Do members recall that they promised a faithful service and submission to the discipline of the Legion-and that a good member is not one who has "success" in the works but who lives up to the promise made?

WEEK III Report Giving

Read: pages 182-184
(Refer to pages 122, 230)

Discuss: Do members use a notebook and prepare reports in advance?
Do members try to make reports interesting including anything unusual or funny that may have happened?
Is report given on assigned work?
When assigned work cannot be done, does the member give an explanation if possible?
When assigned work cannot be done, does the member know not to "fill in" with some other good work done?
Is the appropriate information given in the report: Work assigned/partner/calls/contacts/time/highlight?
Are assignments done in the spirit of prayer?
Are they done with the realization that the member goes out as a representative of the Praesidium?

Some details may seem small and unimportant; however, we cannot judge the importance of every detail when working for a God who is attentive to the smallest details of a snowflake, the numbers of hairs on our head, etc. Let us imitate His attentiveness to the little things. God Bless You.
